LOS ANGELES LATINO CHAMBER OF COMMERCE OUTLOOK AND HIGHLIGHTS

Dear Community Leader,

As we continue to expand our efforts towards promoting economic development tools and resources, you should not overlook a great opportunity by the "Wells Fargo Works for Small Business®: Neighborhood Renovation Program Contest". Your business could win up to $25,000 towards renovation of the exterior or interior of your establishment. The contest will run through the entire month of May. For information on eligible neighborhoods and how to enter, please click here.

We value your commitment to the economic development of our community. Scroll below for highlights of upcoming events and programs that are contributing to the economic strength of our Latino businesses.

Onward,

America at Work by Walmart

Walmart is committing to purchase $250 billion in products that are made, sourced, or grown in the United States as they aim to lead the renewal of American manufacturing. In their efforts to create 1 million American jobs, Walmart will hold its fourth annual open call on Wednesday June 28, 2017 at the Walmart corporate offices in Bentonville, Arkansas.

The open call is available to both potential new suppliers and existing suppliers with new product proposals. Space is limited. In order to participate in the event, companies must apply by submitting a product proposal by May 18, 2017. Applications can be submitted right now by clicking here. You can also learn more about the America at Work initiative here.

Inner City Capital Connections

Inner City Capital Connections (ICCC) is a program that is positioning inner-city businesses for long-term success. It is designed for busy executives of various expertise levels. Since 2005, alumni of the ICCC program have had an average of 184% growth in revenue, created more than 12,000 jobs and raised $1.4 billion in capital. The 2017 program will begin with opening executive education seminars in the various cities, including Los Angeles. For more information check out the video below and check out the website by clicking here. You can also access the nominator kit here.

About LALCC

Since 2009, the Los Angeles Latino Chamber of Commerce (LALCC) has advocated for and promoted the economic development of Greater Los Angeles' Latino-owned businesses, which now number more than 300,000. The chamber's economic development services include procurement, access to capital, certification, technical and other business assistance. Among other issues, its policy and advocacy efforts are focused on public and private minority procurement, community reinvestment and development, Latino public policy, international trade and small business funding. LALCC is a 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(6) nonprofit organization. For additional information about the chamber, visit lalcc.org.
